SPARE PARTS

July

IPMS/USA Award Winning Newsletter

2022

Next Meeting: Monday, July 11 at the Smoketree Community Bldg, gather at 6:30 P.M., action commences at 7:00. All scale modelers are invited to attend and participate. Focus: There will be a Mission Models Paint Class taught by Scott Wallace (postponed from June), the always popular Show & Tell (don't forget to register upon arrival), and Mike's awesome Prize Drawings Pandemonium to follow.

MISSION MODELS

PREMIUM HOBBY PAINTS, PRIMERS & ADDITIVES

Scott Wallace will help take the mystery out of these paints for new users. Class is in: July 11 Chapter Meeting.

CHANGE THE WAY YOU PAINT

On Scott's Bench: Tamiya 1/35 Jagdpanzer Marder I

...Scott Holtz

This build is at about 50% complete. I used Tamiya XF-89 "NATO Black" to prime the model. Came back with XF-60 "Dark Yellow" base coat. Then added XF-2 "White" to the XF-60 to panel shade. This is where I'm at right now. I will add XF-89 "Green 2" and XF-90 "Red Brown 2" to complete the camo scheme. Afterward, will weather as needed. Stay tuned. ...Scott

Once again proving the U.S. Navy's old adage that "Jet noise is the sound of freedom." Southwest Airlines recently painted one of their jetliners as a waving American flag to honor members of the U.S. military past and present. The plane is dubbed "Freedom One." The link below is to a You Tube video featuring time-lapse photography of how the plane was painted. As if anything more of a statement was needed, Freedom One is an American built Boeing 737-800 aircraft—not one of the French-German Airbus or Brazilian Embraer jets you're likely to fly in nowadays.

For those of us who enjoy building model aircraft, can you imagine what a decal sheet (in 1/144 "airliner" scale) would cost and how complex it would be to apply?

If vacation traveling in July, please have a wonderful and safe trip and remember (as my dad used to say) the many heroes who walk unnoticed among us.

I have not been able to locate an aftermarket decal sheet of "Freedom One" (too new?), but it has to be too good a subject to be ignored. Maybe Pas-Decals? -editor

Mike plays with Flying Sub, wouldn't you?

IPMS Richmond Chapter Information

The Richmond Chapter of the International Plastic Modelers Society was established in 1972 by five area scale modelers. Combining great talent and passion for scale modeling, they created IPMS Richmond, with the expressed hope of spreading their enthusiasm for modeling to others in Central Virginia, and beyond.

Chapter members and guests meet the second Monday of each month, sharing their latest projects during "Show 'n Tell", developing improved modeling techniques while enjoying award winning members' demonstrations and special guest speakers. Members organize trips to public events that focus on scale modeling, competition, and history. Quarterly, our members gather just to build models as a group, and to enjoy each other's modeling, in-progress.

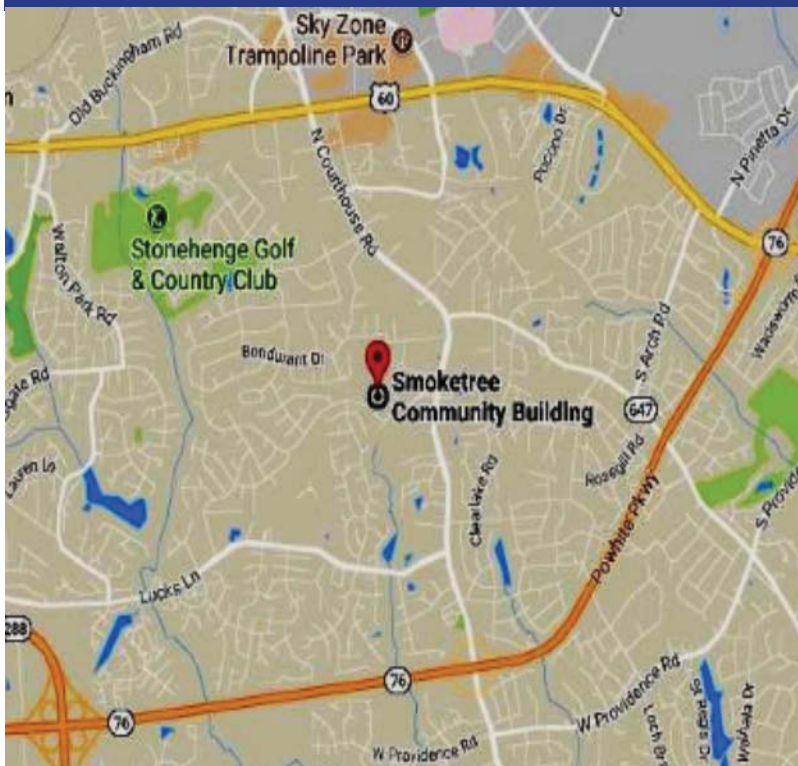

IPMS Richmond hosts the Mid-Atlantic's largest annual one-day scale modeling event, the Old Dominion Open model show and contest, which attracts a thousand, and more, to fellowship, compete, shop vendors offering the latest and vintage hobby products, and to be amazed at the over 1,000 completed scale models on display.

Annual membership fee: $25 (and special discount family membership fee). IPMS Richmond is governed by its constitution and by-laws, administered by annually elected officers. We share your love for scale modeling, no matter the subject, and we invite you to join us.
